

BURGESS BREDO ARCHITECT LTD.

Burgess W. Bredo B.Sc., B.Arch., AAA, FRAIC PRINCIPAL

As a founding partner of Burgess Bredo Architect Ltd., Burgess Bredo brings an impressive array of experience with a variety of building projects to the firm. Graduating in 1971 with a Bachelor of Science from the University of Alberta, Mr. Bredo moved on to Nova Scotia Technical College, graduating in 1975 with a Bachelor of Architecture. Mr. Bredo began his career in the offices of Douglas Cardinal Architect Ltd. in 1975. From there he moved to Newman Architect Ltd. where he worked his way up to Partner and was Partner-in-Charge on a number of projects. In 1982, the firm was re-organized and Mr. Bredo became the sole principal of the firm and remains so to this date.

Academic Qualifications

Bachelor of Science University of Alberta, 1971

Bachelor of Architecture Nova Scotia Technical College, 1975 (now Dalhousie University)

Project Management University of Alberta Extension Course

Professional Qualifications

Fellow Royal Architectural Institute of Canada

Member Alberta Association of Architects (AAA)

Volunteer Activities

Vice Chair Building Technical Council (AAA representative)

Member Professional Involvement Committee (BTC representative)

Member Everyone's A Winner charity golf tournament Organizing Committee

Member St. Agnes Parish Liturgy Committee

Past Member Barrier Free Design Advisory Committee (BTC representative)

Past Vice President Alberta Association of Architects Council

Past Chairman AAA Practice Review Board

Past Chairman: Art and Architecture Committee, Edmonton Archdiocese

Awards and Publications

Strathcona Library 2007 Heritage Conservation Award from Alberta Historical Resources Foundation

Strathcona Library 2007 Award of Excellence from the Alberta Masonry Association

northgate lions seniors centre, edmonton

riverlands medical centre, red deer, alberta